50th Anniversary Celebration Dinner

A celebration dinner is to be held in order to mark the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Plymouth Section of the IRSE.

The Guest of Honour will be Daniel Woodland, Vice President IRSE

Date: Friday 20th March 2020.

Start time: 19.00hrs

Venue: the Green Room of the Boringdon Park Golf Club, Plymbridge Road, Plympton, Plymouth, PL7 4QG.

The event is primarily for IRSE members from the Plymouth and surrounding area plus invited guests, however there is limited additional capacity.

The year 2020 sees the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Plymouth Section of the IRSE. The inaugural meeting of the section was held on Wednesday 21st January 1970 at the Plymouth Polytechnic. Guests of Honour were Senior Vice President A. A. Cardani and Junior Vice President M. E. Leach. A. A. Cardani spoke and expressed both his and Council best wishes to the Plymouth Section, advising that Council had formally confirmed the formation. The speaker for the evening was Mr. J. Fews who presented a paper entitled "The Use Of Reeds in Vital Signalling Circuits".
